

THE FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY
CENTER FOR TEACHING & LEARNING

Recognize a Special Teaching Assistant Call for Nominations

The Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award (OTAA) Committee is seeking nominations for awards recognizing excellence in teaching by a Teaching Assistant.

What is the Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award?

These awards are given to teaching assistants (TAs) in recognition of their distinguished contributions to student learning through excellence in instruction (i.e. teaching, labs, recitations or instructor support – with student contact).

Who can nominate?

- Department Chairs, Faculty & Staff
- FSU students

Who should be nominated?

Nominate teaching assistants (TAs) who have demonstrated excellence in the teaching/ learning process as a graduate TA (lab or lecturer, instructor, recitation leader, or a course facilitator for a faculty member face-to-face or online at FSU).

How to Nominate?

Online at: <http://pie.fsu.edu>

Print and Mail or Fax form to:
FSU Outstanding Teaching Assistant Awards Committee
Suite C-3500 University Center
Tallahassee, Florida 32306-2550
Fax: (850) 644-5803

ACADEMIC & PROFESSIONAL
PROGRAM SERVICES

Deadline for Nomination:
Friday,
Jan. 29, 2010

These TAs will be recognized in April at the Celebration of Graduate Student Excellence

<http://pie.fsu.edu>