About The Returning Student Scholarship

The Returning Student Scholarship program is comprised of four scholarships:

The Florida State College of Women
Class of 1943 Endowed Scholarship

The Reva Daniels Metzinger
Returning Student Endowed Scholarship

The Dr. Mary L. Pankowski
Returning Student
Endowed Scholarship

The Freida Frei Meland
Endowed Scholarship

The scholarships were established to provide financial assistance to deserving adults who wish to return to school. Scholarships will be awarded based on ALL the following criteria.

Scholarship Criteria

1. Male or female, 23 years of age or older, Florida resident;
2. Have at least a five (5) year consecutive break in education. However, students who have a 5-year break and return to a community college to complete an AA degree will be eligible for consideration upon their transfer to Florida State University.
3. Admitted as a degree seeking, undergraduate or graduate student at Florida State University;
4. Demonstration of financial need;
5. Strength of applicant's personal statement;
6. Strength of applicant's statement of how the scholarship will impact his/her life;
7. Previous academic record;
8. Strength of recommendation letters;
9. Motivation and potential.

The Returning Student Scholarship awards $1,000 per semester for a maximum of three semesters. The scholarship will be automatically renewed provided a 2.5 GPA is maintained.*

Applicants grant the Selection Committee permission to verify the applicant's grades.*
